

SANDY'S PUB

TO-GO MENU

Sandy's Pub, named after Sandy Poulsen, honors "the first lady of Olympic Valley." Sandy and her husband, Wayne, were pioneers who dreamed of turning the area into a ski resort. After partnering and then parting ways with Alex Cushing, who developed the valley, the PoulSENS found success in real estate, contributing significantly to the community and raising eight children, four of whom joined the US Ski Team.

Regulars at the original Bullwhackers restaurant, Sandy and Wayne's impact led to its renaming in her honor after a renovation. Sandy's Pub continues to embody her warm and welcoming spirit. Our Culinary Team sources from local and sustainable farms, creating fresh, delicious recipes daily. A favorite among locals and tourists, the pub offers California comfort fare, a great craft beer selection, and a cozy "Tahoe" atmosphere. Strike up a conversation at the bar—you might just pick up some ski tips from a local!
